To whom it may concern

It is with a high-level of interest that I submit my application for the current position. My effective leadership and problem-solving abilities make me the perfect candidate for the position.

With over 12 years of experience in IT industry, I can apply a unique combination of skills to achieve positive outcomes when managing the challenges of this role. Please consider the following highlights from my resume:

Cost Conscious: saved University close to $100,000 by developing an in-house mobile application that was previously a failed project that I turned it into a successful goal that was accomplished for students.

Leadership: Managed a team of 10 that accomplished building software development standards as well as SharePoint development standards and data standards for my team and the university.

IT Skill: Experience with server visualization and cloud computing, as well as dynamic application development within the cloud.

My comprehensive hands-on experience and formal training will make me an excellent addition to your organization; the attached resume provides further detail about how my qualifications and background are a match for your team's needs.

Please feel free to contact me at your earliest convenience to set up a time to discuss how I can benefit your organization. Thank you for reviewing this letter and the accompanying material.

Sincerely,

Chris Jones
